IMA World Fellowship Meeting: Europe and Israel, Jews and Medicine

The Jewish Medical Association UK, together with the Israeli Medical Association World Fellowship, will host a special two day meeting in London, 31st August – 2nd September 2015.

Details of the programme will be announced in the coming weeks, but amongst the topical questions that will be discussed are:

- › Is there medical anti-semitism in Europe?
- › What is the status of Brit Milah in Europe today, and what is the role and responsibility of the doctor?

The programme will also include medical themes such as:

- › Emergency Medicine
- › Recent advances in imaging and genetics
- › Israel's role in global health

Registration fee: £130.

Meeting venue: Ort House, 126 Albert St., London NW1.

Hotels: (i) Holiday Inn Camden Town £207/night; (ii) Thistle Euston £227/night; (iii) Britannia £100/night; (iv) Premier Inn £116/night

Please contact info@jewishmedicalassociationuk.org to register or to receive additional information.

We look forward to welcoming you in London.
